Hankow, June 12.
Bad weather is believed to be holding up large-scale Japanese air raids on the Wuhan area.

Unconfirmed Chinese reports state that a mighty armada of 100 Japanese planes hopped off yesterday morning from Wuhu and Nanking for Hankow, but was forced to turn back near the Hupoh border on account of bad weather conditions.—(Reuter).

London, June 12.
The Air Ministry placed large orders for aeroplanes during last week, according to well-informed quarters. Further large orders will follow shortly and will probably be more than four times as large as the contract given to the United States for 400 machines. It is considered that the time within which delivery will be made will be two years and that the machines will cost about £14,000,000.

The Air Ministry announced yesterday that the Government had agreed to construct a new aeroplane factory at the Rolls Royce works in Crewe, to be completed with six months and employ a thousand workers.—(Transocean).

KWANGSI CHIEFS
SAFE AND SOUND

Canton, June 12.
Rumours that General Li Chung-jen, Commander-in-Chief in the Lungshai front, was wounded in action and that many Kwangsi troops have been killed in battle have proved to be unfounded.

A letter written by General Li and addressed to a friend here stated that he was well and that his troops had effected a strategic retreat from Hsuehchou without loss.

Another letter from General Pei Hsing-hsi added that the Chinese troops would continue the struggle to the last. Both Generals Li and Pei made a gallant defence at Hsuehchou for over four months.—(International).

JAPANESE SURRENDER
SHANTUNG TOWNSChinese Planning To Cut
Tientsin-Pukow Railway

Hankow, June 12.
A Japanese military spokesman announced today that a Chinese column which recently withdrew from Hsuehchou has advanced northward and taken Linli and Mengyin, in south Shantung, according to a message from Shanghai.

From Mengyin the Chinese are preparing to drive westward in an attempt to cut the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, the spokesman added.

The spokesman further revealed that Chinese guerrillas are active south of the Kiaotsi Railway. A unit has reached Anchou, 15 miles south of Fangtze, on the railway, whilst another unit has re-occupied Linchu, 15 miles south of Yitui.—(Central News).

CHINESE SELLING SINKIANG
Tungkuang, June 12.
Chinese troops are shelling the Japanese besieged in the walled city of Sinkiang, in southwest Shansi. The city was once recaptured by the Chinese but later fell into Japanese hands again.

Feelings Again Run High In
CzechoslovakiaMANY ELECTION
INCIDENTS

Prague, June 12.
Political feeling in connection with the third Sunday communal elections is running high and is exacerbated by reports of incidents in various parts of the country.

Although there has been no bloodshed hitherto, it is evident that the situation needs watching. At Wamdorf, a score of Sudeten Germans taking refuge in the house of a Social Democrat during a downpour, refused to move and the owner was obliged to summon the police.

MOTOR CAR STONED

A quarrel ensued, leading to the detention of 47 Sudeten Germans who, however, were later released to the acclamation of a thousand sympathisers who surrounded the court house.

Incidents occurred in Bratislava between Slovak Communists and Autonomists, which led to rioting in which students burned Communist emblems.

A motor car belonging to Father Heine, leader of the Slovak Autonomists, was stoned, it is believed, by Communists. Three people inside the car sustained minor injuries.—(Reuter).

IMPORTANT STAGE

Berlin, June 12.
It is held that the elections in Czechoslovakia will again prove the strength and discipline of the Sudeten Germans, considerably strengthening the Party in its negotiations with the Czech Government which it is believed will enter an important stage immediately after the elections.

The flow of reports of incidents in Czechoslovakia continues uninterrupted and include an incident in Aussig where a sergeant ordered men to point loaded rifles at Sudeten Germans giving the Nazi salute to one another.

Newspapers are also playing up the alleged Communist danger in Czechoslovakia which Moscow is accused of fostering as a jumping board to Western Europe.—(Reuter).

YANGTSE SHIPS
WARNEDWireless Reports
Prohibited

Hankow, June 12.
In view of the reported intention of Japanese warships to steam up-river to Hankow, instructions forbidding all merchantmen on the Yangtze from sending the usual wireless reports on the weather and the water mark have been issued by the Ministry of Communications, under instructions from the National Military Council.

Yangtze shipping is specially warned against sending out wireless reports for the section of the river between Hankow and Anking for fear that such reports may prove to be useful to the Japanese warships.—(Reuter).

LARGE JAPANESE
FLEET
IN YANGTSE

Tsingyang, Anhwei, June 12.
Over 30 Japanese warships are now massed in the Yangtze River between Tating and Kweichih. Among them are several troop transports, indicating that the Japanese are determined to land.

Throughout yesterday the warships and about 80 Japanese planes continually bombarded the banks.—(Central News).

There is no truth in the report that French military advisers will replace the German military mission in China.

Plans Of Campaign
May Be ChangedUNPRECEDENTED FLOODS
THREATEN NORTH HONAN

Hankow, June 12.
Roaring cascades of foam threaten to compel the Japanese to change their plan of campaign in the region of the Yellow River, which is rushing through breaks in the dykes along its south bank below Chengchow, according to official Chinese dispatches from that city.

The flood waters are stated to have crossed the Lungshai Railway and to be flowing south-east into channels of the Chiau River.

The Yellow River flood is making east Honan and northwest Anhwei unsuitable for military operations and may compel the Japanese to change their plans of operations on these fronts. It is now believed that the Japanese may use their main body for a drive through Hefei, leading straight to Hankow along the north bank of the Yangtze River.—(Reuter).

SITUATION SERIOUS

Hankow, June 12.
The flood situation in the Yellow River is becoming serious, and many parts of the Lungshai Railway, through which the Japanese detachments are moving, have been inundated.

It is believed here that should the Japanese reach Chengchow, they will not continue the thrust westward and will turn south along the Peking-Hankow Railway.—(International).

North Honan is threatened with a flood of unprecedented magnitude as the result of serious breaks in the dykes of the Yellow River northeast of Chengchow, according to an official Chinese communique issued yesterday.

The communique says, "Japanese forces on June 9 launched a severe attack on the Chinese positions in the vicinity of Kungmou. (Continued on Back Page)"

Wedding
Expenses
Donated To Country

Mr. Huang, Chih-yun, wealthy local Chinese merchant, has donated the money for his son's marriage and the wedding presents, amounting to more than $2,000, to the War-time Service organised by the National University, states Central News.

The wedding of Mr. Huang's son, Mr. Huang Ching-li, took place on June 9 when Miss Chen Li-ching, second daughter of Mr. Chen Shih-chang became his bride.

This was the first time in Hong Kong that wedding expenses were donated for the cause of the country. Since Mr. Huang has taken the lead, it is expected that many will follow suit in the future.

Calcutta, June 12.
An aeroplane chartered by the German Himalayan expedition carried out a flight over Nanga Parbat on Friday and dropped supplies over the main camp.

After being three hours in the air, the aeroplane returned to its base at Grinagar, in Kashmir. An officer of the British air force took part in the flight.—(Transocean).

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE ROCKS
BELGIUM—FRANCE, ENGLAND
AND GERMANY ALSO SHAKEN

A severe earthquake occurred on Saturday at midday at Brussels, the shock lasting for 30 seconds and causing the death of four persons, injuries to many others and enormous damage to property.

The tremors were felt in France, parts of Germany and England. It is thought that the centre of the disturbance was near the English Channel, between the English and Belgian coasts.

Brussels, June 12.
A fairly severe earthquake occurred here on Saturday afternoon. After the shock, which lasted for about 30 seconds, a large number of panic-stricken citizens fled from their houses.

In various quarters of the city chimneys were hurled into the streets and many persons were injured by the flying bricks. In the suburb of Schaerbeek a house collapsed but it is so far not known whether there were any casualties.

All the instruments in the Ucles Observatory were damaged while reports from the provinces state that much damage was done in the outlying districts.—(Transocean).

THREE KILLED

Brussels, June 12.
At Ghent, workers were hit by falling bricks, and one was seriously injured that he died shortly afterwards. In Ocrum, a labourer was killed by collapsing wall, and in St. Amand a panic-stricken inhabitant lost his life by running into a motor car.

Many houses in Kortryk were unroofed by the tremors and a man looking out of the window was hurled into the street and gravely injured.

The quake was also responsible for a number of fires, which caused considerable damage. In Ghent, for instance, a factory was reduced to ruins.—(Continued on Page 9)

APPEAL TO THE LEAGUE

Bombing Of Canton Civilians

For the relief of South China refugees, a Federation of local organisations was inaugurated on Saturday.

In the course of the meeting which was attended by most of the War Relief Organisations and many other charitable organisations in the Colony, a resolution was passed to despatch a telegram to the League of Nations, urging sanctions to prevent further bombing atrocities.

The message was worded as follows: "Secretary-General, League of Nations, Geneva. Kindly circulate to member-states the following message. Japanese planes are continuously bombing non-fortified Canton and slaughtering innumerable civilians with indescribable and horrible results. We appeal to all humanity for immediate medical supplies and monetary contributions, and we strongly urge international sanctions to prevent further atrocities." Chinese Guerilla Column Advancing On Kuyang Hankow, June 11. Reviewing the war situation, a Chinese spokesman confirmed today that a column of Chinese guerillas is vigorously advancing on Kuyang, 22 miles southeast of Nanking.

On the Lungshai front the Chinese and Japanese, the spokesman said, are still pitted against each other at Paisha, west of Chungmow. The Japanese driving southwestward from Ningling and Kweitch in an attempt to cut the Peiping-Hankow Railway south of Chengchow are being engaged northeast of Changkeh.

After taking Luyi on the Honan-Anhui border, the Isogai Division has not been able to make any progress because of stubborn Chinese resistance. Fighting is still going on east of Hwaiyang, about 50 kilometres west of Luyi.

A part of the 20,000 Japanese troops massed at Peikpu and Lin-hwailwan on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway south of the Hwai River have been sent to Hwai as reinforcements. The rest are driving eastward in an effort to "mop up" the Chinese troops operating around Hwaiyang in north Kiangsu, the spokesman disclosed.

In the Hwai sector the Japanese, according to the spokesman, have remained inactive during the last few days. But they seem to be attempting to effect junction with their troops at Fengtai and Shouhsien in north Anhwei before they will resume their westward drive.

Fighting has been resumed in north Shansi. Three thousand Japanese troops from Tsingshuiho in south Shuiyuan and over 1,000 from Pinglu in north Shansi are attacking the Chinese positions around Pienkwan. —(Central News).

TO DEFEND CHENGCHOW

Chengchow, June 11. Heavy Chinese reinforcements have arrived to defend Chengchow.

Japanese planes have been staging daily raids on the city during the last few days. They dumped explosives aimlessly and mercilessly machine-gunned the civilians. Casualties were heavy.

Trains are still running between Chengchow and Hankow. —(Central News).

SUCCESS OF GUERRILLAS AT CHANGPING

Hankow, June 11.

With the exception of some 10 soldiers captured alive a Japanese unit stationed at Shangtaywui in the district of Changping, 22 miles northwest of Peiping, was wiped out by Chinese guerillas during a surprise attack on June 6, belated reports received here reveal.

Japanese troops have been dispatched from Peiping to engage the guerillas. —(Central News).

STAFFORD BYE-ELECTION

London, June 11. The result of the bye-election at Stafford announced this afternoon was G. Thornycroft, (Conservative) 16,754; F. Lloyd, (Labour) 12,346. No Change. At the last election, the Conservative majority was 3,681. —(British Wireless).

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TALKS

New Buildings For British Troops

Cairo, June 11. It is stated that negotiations are now proceeding between the Egyptian and British Governments concerning new buildings required by the British garrison stationed in the Suez Canal Zone.

It would appear that a tender by a British firm carry out the building programme at a cost of £5,000,000 was declined by the Egyptian Government for the twofold reason that the Egyptian Government intended constructing the buildings in question itself and that the estimate was far too low, having regard to the exigencies of the British military authorities.

SPECIAL TOWN

Papers here calculate that the carrying out of the building programme would involve an expenditure of £12,000,000. According to the papers the British military authorities require a special new garrison town to be built near Ismailia which shall contain, besides the necessary barracks, three military aerodromes, 25 munition depots, 130 tennis courts, 55 villas and a number of public parks and other amenities.—(Transocean.)

CAMOENS' DAY IN MACAO

School Children Celebrate

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Macao, June 10, 1938.

A public demonstration featured the commemoration of Camoens' Day in Macao today, hundreds of school-children taking part in paying homage to Luis Vaz de Camoens—Portugal's soldier-poet and the author of her greatest literary treasure, the Lusad.

The ceremony, which was held at The Grotto where, according to legend, Camoens wrote the major part of his immortal epic poem, was also attended by all officials and residents of this Colony, including H. E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Artur Tamagnin de Sousa Barbosa, and His Lordship the Bishop of Macao, the Most Rev. D. Jose da Costa Nunes.

Also present were Dr. Carlos Sampaio (Colonial Secretary), Dr. A. Miranda (Chief Judge), Dr. M. S. Lels (Attorney-General), Dr. G. de Brito Chaves (Director of Medical Services), Mr. Luciano Martins (Postmaster-General), Captain S. Vieira (Harbour Master), Captain Macedo Pinto (A.D.C. to the Governor), Major L. Pinto Lello (Chief of Staff), Lt. Col. A. Arez (Commissioner of Police), Capt. Carlos Gorguinho (Police Commandant), Mr. Leong Hao-un (Chinese Representative), and many others.

An address on the poet and his poem was given by Dr. Artur de Almeida Carneiro, of the Liceu Infante D. Henrique, from the step-path leading to the Grotto while the well-known Peiping scholar Ho-shu spoke similarly in Chinese. Following this, hundreds filed past the Grotto, including all school-bodies and Boy Scout troops, and naval and military detachments.

The National flag was flown at all public buildings throughout the day, while electric illuminations were kept on until a late hour at night.

THE WEEK IN MACAO

(From Our Own Correspondent)
Macao, June 12.

Recently raised to the rank of Captain was Lt. Alberto Ferreiro Macedo Pinto, A.D.C. to H.E. the Governor of Macao. The News of the promotion was well received by local residents with whom Capt. Macedo Pinto has long been popular.

Girl Guides

On Sunday, June 4, the Macao Girl Guides attended a special Church service at the Santa Rosa Lima College to celebrate the first anniversary of their establishment. The successful year-span of this group of young ladies has been mostly due to the hardworking efforts and direction of Miss Temudo de Vera, daughter of Brig.-Gen. Temudo de Vera.

Homegoing

Having completed his term of service in the Colony of Macao, Capt. Manuel Casseiro Alves will soon be returning to Portugal. Capt. Alves saw service with the Portuguese Expeditionary Force in the Great War.

Commander

On Sunday, June 4, the Macao Infantry Company is Capt. Carlos de Silva Carvalho who recently arrived in Macao from Portugal. An interesting ceremony took place at the San Francisco Barracks when the command was handed over to him by his predecessor, Capt. Casseiro Alves.

Italy Bound

Soon leaving for Mercatello Conde in Italy is the Rev. Father Ercole Tiberti, sub-Director of the Salesian Institute. Father Tiberti is making the trip on the recommendations of his medical advisers.

Boys' Football

His Lordship the Bishop of Macao, the Most Rev. D. Jose da Costa Nunes, a few months ago presented a silver cup to be competed for by boys' football teams in Macao. On Sunday, June 4, the Salesian Sunday School defeated the Shanghai Refugees in the final match and by so doing won the coveted prize.

Tennis Champs

The annual tennis championships of the Liceu Infante D. Henrique Students' Association was recently brought to a close. Winners, who were presented with suitable prizes, were: Singles: Fernando Ribeiro; Doubles: Fernando Ribeiro and Jose Trigo da Silva.

Correction

The attention of the Macao authorities has been drawn to a report in this column last week and which has also appeared in Hong Kong and Canton dailies that emergency steps, similar to those in effect in Hong Kong, have been laid down to control the influx of Chinese refugees fleeing from the Canton bombings. It has been officially pointed out that no such restrictions have been imposed locally by the Portuguese.

WHO TOLD YOU THAT?

"I suppose you were nervous when you first asked your husband for money?"
"No, I was calm and collected."

BETTER VALUE
THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set, illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use. The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves, than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade. The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

INSURGENT FORCES NOW
NEAR LUCENA DEL CIDRepublican Defenders Thrown Into Confusion

Saragossa, June 11. All reports coming in from the Teruel and Castellon fronts speak about vigorous efforts on the part of the insurgent forces to reach a decision in their present offensive.

Following a furious artillery barrage in the early hours of yesterday morning, insurgent infantry on the Teruel front launched a big attack near Lucena del Cid. Powerfully supported by low-flying warplanes and by numerous tank squadrons, they smashed their way through the enemy positions to a depth of nearly eight miles.

General Aranda's division, holding the eastern sector of the front, achieved an outstanding success by pushing forward to within striking distance of Villa Farnes, which lies immediately north of Castellon. Batteries belonging to this division now dominate the lines of communication between Alcoceber and Castellon.

DEFENDERS CONFUSED

This entangling movement, carried out in brilliant manner by General Aranda and his Galician troops, has had the effect of throwing the Republican defenders into confusion.

The Republicans had constructed a strong system of defence in the mountainous region between Alcoceber and the coast in the hope of being able to stem the insurgent advance.

General Aranda, however, struck out southwards, that is in a direction running parallel with the coast. As a result of this unexpected move the Republicans found themselves hemmed in between the insurgent front and the coast, and are now beginning to evacuate their strongly fortified system of defences. They are making strenuous efforts to save their war material from falling into the hands of the advancing insurgents.

COSTUR OCCUPIED

Further westwards an insurgent column occupied the town of Costur and by pressing forward to Alcora and La Foya, which lie south of Lucena del Cid, has cut the road of communication between Lucena and Castellon.

The heights west and east of Lucena del Cid have already been captured, and the fall of Lucena and Castello de Villamañes is expected to occur at any moment.

Republican resistance showed a definite weakening yesterday, except on that sector of the Teruel front facing General Varela's division, where the Republicans have concentrated large masses of their troops.—(Transocean).

National Spanish Forces
Break Way Into Albogager

Saragossa, June 12. The National Spanish forces entered the town of Albogager at noon on Saturday. The fall of this important stronghold of the Republicans removes one of the last big obstacles on the advance to Castellon and Valencia.

Republican forces are retreating in disorder, pursued by two columns of Nationalist infantry which are now smashing their way along the two main roads leading to Castellon.

In the meantime the troops of General Garcia Valino are rapidly approaching Castellon from the west. They have already captured Borriol Heights, thus bringing themselves to within six miles of Castellon.

Nationalist circles here claim that this is a big victory as within a few hours the Republican forces were completely outmanoeuvred. The entire defence belt of Castellon has fallen into the hands of the advancing Nationalists together with a number of guns and upwards of two thousand prisoners.—(Transocean).

SINO-JAPANESE FRICTION AT CONFERENCETERMINATED BY AGREEMENT

Geneva, June 11. Several days of Sino-Japanese friction at the International Labour Office conference have been terminated by an agreement between Mr. Chu, the Chinese delegate, and the Japanese delegate, Mr. Kitaoka.

It will be recalled that Mr. Chu was forbidden to make a speech in which he intended to severely criticise Japan.

Now he has made a moderate speech, on condition that Mr. Kitaoka, who followed him, did not mention China.

Mr. Chu, in his speech this morning, made no specific mention of Japan.

"A CERTAIN COUNTRY"

He evaded the difficulty by referring to the "armed invasion by a certain foreign country in July, 1937," which resulted in the demolition of 8,977 factories, the unemployment of 12,000,000 Chinese workers, the slaughter of Chinese troops by the enemy, the death of children, the outrage of wives and the bombing of open towns.

Mr. Chu maintained that the security of all nations is imperilled and the welfare of all workers endangered by foreign aggression against China.

Only effective measures for restraining the aggressors, he said, would be found in safe-guarding the existence of the International Labour Office.

JAPANESE REPLY

Mr. Kitaoka declared that the Conference was no place for Far Eastern political discussion.

Japan's collaboration with the I.L.O. was possible because of the non-political character of the latter body.

The Japanese Government had already stated that they wished to secure permanent peace and co-operation with their neighbour with a view to improving the

FRENCH ENVOY
RETURNSBrief Visit To Canton

Canton, June 11. After a brief one day's stay here, M. Paul Emile Naggar, French Ambassador to China, returned to Hong Kong by boat at seven o'clock this morning.

The French envoy and his party were seen off at the wharf by a large group of leading local personalities, including representatives of General Yu Han-mou, Commander-in-Chief of the Fourth Route Army, and General Wu Tchen, Governor of Kwangtung.

Dr. Philip Tyan, special Commissioner for Foreign Affairs for Kwangtung and Kwangsi, was at the wharf to bid M. Naggar goodbye.

While in Canton, the French Ambassador had inspected the French Consulate in Shameen, the bomb-devastated by Japanese air raids, and the French Doumer Hospital, which was hit by Japanese missiles in a recent aerial attack.—(Central News).

LULL ON LUNGHAI
FRONT

Chengchow, June 11. There was a lull on the Lunghai front yesterday as a result of heavy downpours.

The Japanese front line is now at Kucheng and Paisha, west of Chungmow, whilst the Chinese troops are entrenched at Shihli, Chalan and Chichang, immediately west of the Japanese line.

A small Japanese cavalry unit was discovered at a point east of Chengchow yesterday, but was immediately driven away by the Chinese plainclothesmen.

The rise in the Yellow River has damaged all pontoon bridges built by the Japanese. As a result, Japanese communications across the river have been rendered extremely difficult.—(Central News).

standard of living of its labourers.—(Reuters).

Japanese Warn PowersKEEP CLEAR OF
THE YANGTZE!

Shanghai, June 12. The spokesman of the Japanese Marine Command here stated officially on Saturday that the Japanese Navy regards the entire stretch between Wuhu and Kichian as war zone. The Japanese fleet, he declared, intended to use the Yangtze River as the base for their operations in connection with the attack on Hankow.

This declaration was specially meant for the foreign powers with the view to forestalling any claims for compensation being made against the Japanese Government for the eventual bombing of any foreign ships on the river.

At the same time it is learned from another reliable Japanese source that preparations for a general assault on Hankow have now been completed.

STIFF RESISTANCE

It will be carried out with all available resources at the disposal of the Japanese. Meanwhile the Japanese offensive along the Hankow railway is proceeding according to plan.

The Japanese press is predicting stiff resistance as it is argued that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is aware of the fact that the fall of Hankow would be a serious blow to China.—(Transocean).

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

(By Allegro Moderato)

Our life is quite full at the present moment. We have been out on the beach, just in time to see them taking away the body of the young student... he was only 22.
There have been births and deaths and marriages and breaking of marriages very close to us, but here we are to you a few moments of amusement this Monday morning.

The broadcasts have been quite good recently. We enjoyed the Rev. C.B.R. Sargent's recorded recital... Voices from the past and were amazed at the difference in the recordings, as they were then to what they are today. We could not help comparing the voices of Bonini and Caruso with a recording of the aria from Faust 'Salve
Dimora,' recently recorded by Dino Borgioli on Columbia. If Mr.
Sargent has not yet acquired that,
we thoroughly recommend that he add it to his, presumably extensive, collection. We are looking forward to his next recital with eagerness.
We also wish him the blessings on his new responsibilities, that is if he accepts them.

St. Teresa Choir.

As for Sacred Catholic Broadcasts of a Sunday evening, as we have asked before, why not give the St. Teresa Choir a trial? We have heard them perform Perosi, who in our opinion is the greatest writer of present day sacred music. The 'Rock' gives us a very interesting article on the music of this composer. Maestro Guadagni has performed the particular composition mentioned, La Resurrezione, in a concert of sacred music with the choir at St. Teresa's.

"Ruddigore"

We hear that the Philharmonic are contemplating the performance of 'Ruddigore'... all we can say is, more power to them. They will need a couple of very good tenors.

The Hong Kong Singers have, we expect, declared their summer holidays, but they may do one or two broadcasts during this season just to keep up practice and interest... that's a good idea.

The Choral Group held a very successful bathing picnic in the summer home of one of their members, two weeks ago. They expect to hold a smoker at the Kowloon Tong Club on June 25.
All those interested in having a bit of music at fresco should make arrangements to attend.

ZBW Orchestra

Returning to the subject of broadcasts, we heard the ZBW Orchestra perform last week and we thought they were very good.
The violin sounded a bit distant.

In Europe there are societies known as "Friends of Music."
These societies are formed by people who are definitely interested in music. They pay an annual fee which entitles them to a certain number of concerts during the year as well as the obtaining of artists and opera companies.

There have been several efforts made to form similar societies
here... The Hong Kong Musical Society, now defunct, had as its purpose to promote music and art and their members are always warned when there should be something worthwhile. They collected no fees. This we think was their faux pas. There was no hold on their members and consequently the interest petered out.

With the formation of the Four Arts Club, where members of all the branches are included, and fees collected, the funds thus created could be employed to sponsor exhibitions, concerts performances by passing artists of note, etc., etc.

Now is the time to start working before the musical season starts in.
The formation of such a club would be quite a big affair and a lot of spade work will have to be done. Are there any pioneers?

Student Delegates
At Unique Party

Hankow, June 12.

A unique gathering was held here on Friday
when the four members of the World's Students Delegation now on a goodwill tour to China were entertained by a group of Mongolian, Tibetan and Mohammedan students.

The delegates, Mr. Frank Lathe, Miss Molly
Yard, Mr. Bernard Floud and Mr. James Klummann, were entertained to a programme of native songs and dances and afterwards mixed and chatted with the 400 students present despite language difficulties.

The gathering was symbolic of the unity and harmony that existed between the youth of the world. Mr. Feng Yun-shen, the Tibetan representative, made a brief address in which he gave assurance of Tibetan help in the struggle for Chinese independence.—(Central News).

CENTRAL EUROPEAN COCKPIT

GERMANY under Hitler has become powerful enough to insist upon modifications of the Peace Settlements of 1919; and Germany's military strength has forced the world's attention upon minority questions in Central Europe.

But they are not new issues. A few days ago the Hungarian minority on the southern borders of Czechoslovakia served demands upon the Czechoslovakian Government similar in nature to those put forward by the Sudeten Germans.

Germany's hand may be behind this move to force concessions from Czechoslovakia; but the discontent of the 690,000 Magyars who were left outside the Hungarian frontier in 1919 has not been created solely by the pressure that is now being put upon Germany by Czechoslovakia.

The treatment of Hungary by the Peace Settlements was harsh and punitive. Realising that Hungary would not be in a position to pay out large sums of money by way of reparations, the peace-makers ruthlessly partitioned the country, and, although the apologists of Versailles said that the treatment was terrible but just, the fact is that the Succession States—Yugoslavia, Rumania and Czechoslovakia—were clamouring for territory as a reward for their support of the Allies.

"MILLIONS of people of alien race," to quote a Hungarian sympathiser who has tried to put the Hungarian point of view to the British people, "proud of their race and their culture, were, with out mercy or appeal, swept into these new States."

Hungary was, in fact, deprived of 72 per cent. of its land and a great part of its population and economic wealth.

LAND AND MORE than 80 per cent. of its valuable forests were lost. Rumania took Transylvania, Yugoslavia took the Banat, and Czechoslovakia absorbed three-quarters of a million Magyars in the north.

It was intended that the minority rights of these people should be respected; but, in fact, obligations were evaded. Furthermore, the Succession States armed themselves, at will, while the Hungarian Army was restricted to 35,000.

Thus, Hungary has never been able to solve her problems by fair means. When the Great War ended she was completely at the mercy of the Allies.

The lost war first brought added disaster in the shape of the Karolyi revolution, which ended in the hope that the victorious Western Powers would plan the future of the country according to the principles enunciated by President Wilson.

THE DISILLUSIONMENT of the people found expression then in the Bela Kun Bolshevik dictatorship of 1919, which lasted 133 days. After the collapse of the dictatorship the country slowly began to build anew.

She is now a monarchy with a vacant throne, the nominal head of the Government being the Regent, Admiral Horthy. Entfeebled and stripped of territory and population, Hungary has been compelled to accept the status quo, but she has steadfastly refused to accept the decisions of the 1919 treaties, and time after time her Government has declared its intention of altering its terms by force whenever opportunity may arise.

The Hungarian view, however, cannot be isolated from policies which conflict with it; nor are the merits of the minorities' question capable of simple definition. Unfortunately, it has always been the lot of small States to be pawns in the diplomacy of the Great Powers.

The peacemakers after the Great War did not take much ac-

THE FINAL VICTORY FOR CHINA

HONG KONG JUNE 12TH.

FINAL VICTORY must lie with China, declared Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in an interview with a group of foreign newspaper correspondents in Hankow on Thursday. The Generalissimo touched on the various phases of the situation in the course of his interview and the fact that he appeared in person to talk to the party of journalists gave the lie to the recent malicious reports the Japanese had spread to the effect that China's leader was so broken-down in health that he could take no more part in administrative affairs.

Almost a year of trouble and strife has failed to leave its mark on this military genius, whose leadership of the Chinese evokes the admiration of the world in general. When the first shot was fired at Lukochiao on that fateful July 7, last year, the Generalissimo knew that China would stand little or no chance against the Japanese if they were to engage the invaders in pitched battles. He therefore planned to prolong the war and although there were those who quickly criticised this method of warfare at that time, these same critics are the first now to admit the wisdom of the measures adopted.

Against a country equipped with superior weapons of war, including a powerful fleet, the Generalissimo saw at the very outset that it would be futile to rush all troops to the front lines, as it were. He therefore planned his campaign in such a way that slowly but surely the invaders were drawn further and further inland and the deeper they penetrated the more difficult it became to maintain their lines of communication.

Blindly the Japanese let themselves be led, and when the Chinese strategically retreated from Nanking, the rejoicings of the Japanese knew no bounds. Victory parades were staged in Shanghai and in Tokyo and the word went round that 'China had been conquered'. Little did they realise then that it was all part of a plan for the strategic withdrawal of the troops further inland. Blindly the Japanese followed and when it was no longer possible for their warships to assist them, they soon felt the difficulty of fighting China on more or less equal terms.

WHAT HAPPENED in Nanking may happen in Hankow—it is doubtful, however, whether it will. But in the event of Hankow falling into the hands of the invaders let it not be thought for a moment that it is the end for China. As General Li said in an interview the other day, Hankow is important to China but if it falls there are other routes available for obtaining supplies for the war which will be continued.

The italics are ours but the fact remains that China is more determined today than ever to resist till the end. This ought to make interesting news for the Japanese propagandists who persist in their stories that China is at the end of her tether. After almost a year of fighting the Chinese soldier today is the equal, if not superior, in every respect to the Japanese. But the most significant thing is that while every Chinese in the war is fighting with all his heart, the Japanese troops are merely carrying on a war that has been forced upon them by their militarists.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his able staff must indeed feel gratified at the magnificent spirit shown by the Chinese nation as a whole, and the civilian population in particular. Opposed to people like the Japanese who recognise no law in their lust for more territory, the Chinese realise that the sacrifices they have to make must of necessity be very heavy and they have made them without a murmur.

But the country in a quiet way is massing her resources to meet the very great demands that are being made of her, and if the day should come that every man in the country is needed for active service, the call will not be made in vain. Meanwhile every Chinese should take heart from the words of the Generalissimo—that "the final victory of the war will be ours."

Dancing And Swimming
'Mid Revelry At Sheko

(BY ROZANNE)

SHEKO was at its best on Saturday night when the habitual peace of Hong Kong's most select community was shattered by the sounds of revelry. The full moon peeping through banks of clouds and cool breezes added to the evening's charm.

Gaily-clad ladies and informally-dressed gentlemen alternately chatted and sipped cooling drinks on the verandahs or danced to the strains of Ed Sequeira and his brothers. Paul Jones' were great favourites and some mischievous person caused slight confusion by turning out the lights.

Mrs. Evans and Miss Diana Dodwell whirled past in captivating gingham prints of blue and white and pink and white respectively. Mrs. James Whitlam's green and white check enticed one to play draughts. Mrs. Tinsin was "tucked away" in spotted green organdie, while Mrs. Bousfield, was as ever, soignée in yellow and white flowered linen.

GREEN ORCHIDS
A rainbow hued taffeta suited Mrs. Longfield "down to the ground." Green orchids on the shoulder of her multi-coloured striped dress showed to advantage Jean Mitchell's svelte figure. Mina Witham's rustling leaf green taffeta framed to perfection her unusual colouring.

Fair and gay despite the departure of her sister, Betty was much in evidence on the dance floor.

Intricately twisted straps were the main feature of Mrs. Dowbiggin's slim model, while her daughter wore an exquisite shade of blue. Mrs. Evans' lovely auburn hair was bewitchingly enhanced by her patterned frock.

SMART NOTE
Mrs. Rawford struck a severely smart note with her black linen coat over a black and red designed gown. A new tone appealed to Miss Newton, a dainty dress in flame chiffon pleated both back and front swayed gracefully in the breeze. Another swirling chiffon, this time in peach made Mrs. Armstrong appear to be floating along.

Mrs. Stafford Smith fancied elegant white, while Catherine King chose green with tomato coat and sash. Soon after midnight the dance floor was abandoned for the refreshing cool of the swimming pool, where splashing and delighted laughter told their own tale of keen enjoyment.

Not to be outdone by their sisters of the ballroom, the bathing costumes were of the most modern and original styles. Men in bathing trunks of all hues were seen to frolic like young gods. In the small hours of the morning the parties reluctantly filtered home, well pleased with their night's revelry.

Hello & Goodbye

— BY A. W. HYER —

These past few days we have been going in circles. Airplanes rushing in and out at Kai Tak. All the wharfs filled, one vessel leaving and another taking its place. Ships' cranes working overtime, the constant yodels of coolie foremen easing on their loading crews—Well it just about has us completely gaga.

Pan American Airways

ABOUT ONE HOUR AHEAD of herself—Wednesday, 2.45 p.m. the China Clipper was hitched to her buoy at Kai Tak. Captain R. C. Dalstrom's passengers, three in number, were all in from Manila.

Taking a jaunt for himself was Mr. Albert Francis, of Pan American Airways. Mr. Francis is a meteorologist, he plays with the moon and stars and all that sort of business, making travel safe for Pan American customers through his weather observations. Manila for the past two months has been his headquarters, but in the future three months he can be located at Alameda, the home port for Pan American.

Mr. Francis came up to say hello and take a 20-hour look at Hong Kong.

When leaving Thursday 8.30 a.m. the sunrise in his eyes was evidence enough that he had a good look—and he told us "Hong Kong has not changed since my last visit several years ago." Mr. Francis had a good time, during his short visit, he did not wish to leave as was proven by the difficulty Captain Dalstrom had in rousing him for the Clipper which waited to transport him to Alameda. We were sorry to see you leave and hope you will be back for another call in the near future.

Another customer leaving Thursday a.m. on the China Clipper was Mr. T. C. Warkman of Lloyds Insurance of London. Flying back to his office in Vancouver will be just another thousand or so miles to him, as he judges there are 40,000 miles of flying to his credit. "It is the only way to travel and especially where business is concerned," Mr. Warkman stated.

The business at hand for Mr. Warkman was the Asama Maru, which was covered with insurance by Lloyds of London. This N.Y.K. liner is being practically rebuilt in Nagasaki and will resume her place in the line within several months.

Mr. Warkman arrived in Japan aboard the Empress of Asia, remained such a short time that he did not have much opportunity to study conditions in that country and therefore, could give us little information on this subject.

We hope you have a comfortable trip, and that you will call soon again in Hong Kong and remain with us a little longer on the next visit.

Mrs. Mike Turner, accompanied by Miss Beryl Fair, left for Home by the s.s. Carthage on Saturday.

Miss Jane Howard completed the passenger list for the China Clipper.

Having spent two delightful weeks in the Colony, Miss Howard will stop over for another visit in Manila, where her many friends have parties lined up for her. Then back to her desk in the Honolulu Advertiser, she will go, and it will be the winding up of a perfect round trip by Clipper and her series of stories on said trip as well.

Miss Howard was bid "Happy Landings" by her many friends in the Colony and too by a charming tall blond American man who did hate to see her go. We extend our best wishes for a continued perfect trip.

Empress of Asia

CAPTAIN G. GOULD was looking forward to seeing his family in Vancouver when he sailed, his Empress out the harbour, last Friday at noon. He likes his ship and the sea, but is always glad to get back to the home port, Vancouver, and spend ten days with his two boys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barker of Philco Radio Company were en route to Vancouver.

Knocking on their cabin door we received a low growl, not sure whether it was a groovy "yes" from a gentleman, but taking a chance we opened the door. No, Mr. and Mrs. Barker, just a very small white bit of fluff which was a poodle pup. We made friends immediately. His master and mistress were still ashore he informed us. After complaining about the stuffy weather and giving us a couple of goodbye licks, he curled on the bunk, giving us notice that the interview was at an end.

Sorry to have missed Mr. and Mrs. Barker, but we are sure the pup will convey to you our greetings and best wishes.

Another elusive customer for the Empress of Asia was Major General W. L. O. Twiss, also en route to Vancouver. What for, no savvy? What goes on, no savvy? When is he coming back, no savvy? We don't know nothin'. We do hope he caught the boat and is at present on the briny deep enjoying the cool breeze.

There were a great many missionaries returning to Canada and the United States, aboard the Empress of Asia. All that we tried to reach were surrounded by friends and cohorts who were all talking at one time, giving excitement and gaiety to their departure.

Imperial Airways

SATURDAY, 3.30 p.m. Captain J. N. Wilson came in with his "Air Buggy" (he probably will not speak to us for a week for this) the Daedalus from Bangkok. His First Officer J. A. Samuels was not aboard due to his visit to the War Memorial Hospital. We are glad to inform you that he has been discharged from said infirmary and will shortly be back at his post. We are glad you are feeling better.

Mr. W. A. Cash (actually) has been acting First Officer for Captain White and Captain Wilson during Mr. Samuels' illness.

Mr. Victor Hakim arrived on the Daedalus from Egypt en route to Kobe. This is his first visit to the Far East and up to 3.35 p.m. Saturday he was not sure whether he was going to like the climate. After a two-day visit in the Colony Mr. Hakim will embark on the s.s. Kumsang for Japan, where he will investigate the cotton business. Mr. Hakim stated that the war in which Japan is now engaged has not affected his business with that country.

We hope you have an enjoyable visit here and that you will return and remain for a week or so with us before returning to Egypt. Mr. R. W. Jones, one of Imperial Airways Engineers arrived on the Daedalus last Wednesday. He will spend several weeks in the Colony supervising the repair and overhaul work which is being done to the Dorado.

That's all for today, Sunday the day of rest, see you all again Thursday.

H.M.S. CAPETOWN

London, June 11.

H.M.S. Capetown returned to Devonport today to pay off after two years on the China station.—(Reuter).

ACTIVE OPERATIONS STARTED AGAINST HANKOW

China War Enters Into New Phase Of Development

FOREIGN POWERS REQUESTED TO WITHDRAW SHIPS

Shanghai, June 12. The war in China has now, according to Japanese military circles here, entered into a new phase of development, characterised by the commencement of active operations against Hankow and by the Japanese activity on the Yangtze.

It is stated that foreign powers have been requested to withdraw their warships and merchantmen from the zone of operations between Wuhu and Hukow. The latter town is half-way between Wuhu and Hankow.

The presence of foreign vessels in that part of the river between Hankow and Hukow will, it is added, be regarded by the Japanese as undesirable and those vessels will be asked to withdraw beyond Hankow. Japanese military circles state that this measure is motivated by the desire to avoid any untoward incidents and express the hope that the powers concerned will accede to the Japanese request.

Regarding the position at Chengchow—at the junction of the Lunghai-Peking-Hankow railway—Japanese reports state that the advance on the town continues without interruption and that the main body of Chinese troops are retreating in a westerly direction on Loyang which is about sixty miles from Chengchow.—(Transocean).

U.S. EMBARGO ON EXPORT OF WAR PLANES

Action Pleases Chinese Circles

Hankow, June 12. Satisfaction is manifest in Chinese circles over the Washington report that the Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, will not grant permits for the export of war planes to countries engaged in indiscriminate bombing of civilians, as this applies to Japan as well as the Spanish Insurgents.

It is reported from Paris that several French political parties have formed a Sino-French committee, whose initial activity is the passing of a resolution condemning the bombing of open cities. France is much perturbed by the Japanese bombing of Canton, including damage to the Doumer Hospital on the Bund.—(International).

CZECHOSLOVAK UNREST

Cabinet and Staff Disagree?

Prague, June 11. The arrival here of the Czechoslovak minister in Paris, M. Osusky, yesterday is believed in political circles to be connected with certain dissensions which have arisen between the cabinet and the Czechoslovak general staff concerning the solution of nationalities problem.

These dissensions are reported to have become more acute after the recent demonstration in Bratislava of Slovak Autonomists led by Father Hlinka.

STRONG MEASURES DEMANDED

It has been noticed, in this connection, that the paper "Lidovo Noviny," which is regarded as the mouthpiece of the General Staff, demanded energetic measures against Slovak Autonomists at the same time as it was announced that the Government had already decided on principle to introduce three years military service.

MILITARY PROBLEMS NOT DISCUSSED

It is reliably stated however, that at the Cabinet Council held on Thursday, military problems were not discussed and this is interpreted as meaning that Premier Hodza has, at any rate for the time being, succeeded in checking those more extremist elements who favoured adoption of the "policy of the strong hand."

It is considered comprehensible that under these circumstances, the Premier should wish to learn the French Government's views on the situation. It is reliably stated that M. Osusky's report will be carefully studied by the Cabinet, which will at the same time, continue its conversations with Ministry Groups.—(Transocean).

MINISTER DEPARTS

Prague, June 12. The Czech Minister in Paris, M. Osusky, left Prague yesterday to return to the French capital after consultations with President Benes, the Premier, Dr. Hodza, and the Foreign Minister, Dr. Krofta.—(Transocean).

FRANCO-CHINESE GROUP FORMED

Paris, June 11. Formation of a "Franco-Chinese group" in the Chamber of Deputies was decided upon at a meeting of deputies belonging to various parties held last evening with the Radical-Socialist, M. Archimbaud, in the chair.

The group so far comprises 118 deputies, among them being the Right Wing Deputy, M. Scapini, former Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, M. Francois de Tesson, the former Minister for Colonies, M. Moutet, and the Communist, M. Gabriel Peri.

First act of the new group was to adopt a resolution protesting against the bombardment of open towns.—(Transocean).

JAPANESE SHIP SUNK

Chinese Air Force Success

Tsingyang, June 11. Both Chinese and Japanese aircraft were active along the Yangtze River between Tating and Kweichih yesterday. Another Japanese warship was bombed and sunk by Chinese planes during the day.

Seeking revenge for their defeat in the fierce land and air battle near Tating on June 9, Japanese warships and planes began a heavy bombardment of the Chinese positions along the bank after dawn yesterday. The bombardment which was continued throughout the day was severest between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. and between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. when hundreds of shells and bombs were freely let loose on the bank.

Huge fires caused by the explosives destroyed large numbers of houses. Twenty-one Japanese planes participated in the bombing in the morning. They were joined in by eleven more in the afternoon. Retaliating to the Japanese naval and air bombardment, a squadron of Chinese planes raided the Japanese warships in the Yangtze River shortly after 2 o'clock in the afternoon. They rained a large number of bombs. One of the missiles scored a direct hit on the stern of one of the enemy vessels, and heavily damaged it. The Japanese marines aboard immediately jumped into the river to escape.

It was later reported that the damaged warship was partially sunk.

All Chinese planes returned safely to their base after the raid.—(Central News).

NO EVACUATION

Hankow, June 11. A Chinese spokesman emphatically denied current rumours of the evacuation of the government offices in Hankow in an interview with the Central News Agency yesterday.

The spokesman said that the rumours must have arisen from the government's decision to disperse the large number of refugees in the city, which is being further increased by the ceaseless stream of refugees from the Lunghai area. To avoid epidemics in the hot season it is obviously necessary to disperse the refugees in the already congested city.

The government offices in Hankow are functioning as usual, the spokesman stated.—(Central News).

T.A. RECRUITING

London, June 11. Territorial Army recruiting figures continue to be excellent. During May, 9,572 recruits were obtained being the second best for any recruiting month since the war.—(British Wireless).

Salamanca, June 12. The new Nationalist Spanish cruiser, Navarre, is almost completed in the naval harbour of Coruna and will be launched very soon.—(Transocean).

FORMOSANS IN CHINA DOING FARM WORK

Shanghai, June 12. Japan's colonisation of Shanghai is going on apace. Another 2,000 Formosan farmers arrived at Nanshan yesterday to take up agricultural work.

The total number of Formosans in Shanghai is about 7,500. They are producing rice and vegetables to be sent to Japan for sale, while Chinese farmers are being drafted into other branches of work.

Refugees are pouring in from Nanking and Hangchow in search of relief. Refugee zones in those towns having been abolished.—(International).

THE SANJAK QUESTION

The delegation includes General Adaklin and Captain Mengye, Director of Military Operations on the General Staff.

The Delegation will discuss with the French Military Mission under the leadership of General Hutzinger.—(Transocean).

Damascus, June 12.

Political circles here believe that a certain relaxation of the tension is observable in regard to the Sanjak question. This more optimistic outlook is based on the announcement that the Syrian delegation will shortly be invited to participate in the Franco-Turkish negotiations now proceeding in Paris with the aim of finding a satisfactory solution of the problem.

It is stated that the Syrian Government is prepared to accept the so-called triple agreement between France, Syria and Turkey as the basis of discussion provided adequate guarantees are forthcoming that its provisions are not one-sidedly interpreted to Syria's detriment.

Meanwhile the Syrian Premier, Mr. Mardam Bey, is kept fully informed by the French High Commissioner of the progress of the Franco-Turkish negotiations.—(Transocean).

Earthquake In Izumo Leaves Shanghai

to ashes by a conflagration resulting from a short circuit.—(Transocean).

CASUALTIES MOUNT

Brussels, June 12. In the Flemish village of Cruyshaute, a wall collapsed and crushed a workman to death. This brings the list of those killed to four.

The list of the injured is constantly increasing.—(Transocean).

FRENCH LOSSES

Paris, June 12. The earthquake which occurred in Belgium and North France yesterday caused greater material damage than was first estimated.

In the French industrial town of Roubaix 20 persons were injured by falling masonry.

In the neighbouring town of Tourcoing a wedding ceremony was in progress in one of the largest churches of the town when the tremors occurred. The large crowd was panic stricken lest the whole edifice should collapse and fled into the street.

In a school in Tourcoing five girls were badly cut by falling glass.

In St. Omer a large electrical power station was put out of action. In Boulogne whole streets were literally strewn with stones from collapsed chimneys many people being injured.

MISTERY BELL

In the village of Peronne on the Somme, where a bell began to ring, apparently of its own accord, the inhabitants were seized with panic and fled into the fields.

The first quake was registered on seismographs at 11.57 a.m. west European time. The second quake occurred at 2.09 p.m. but was much less severe and caused no material damage. It is thought that the centre of the disturbance was near the English Channel, between the English and Belgian coasts.—(Transocean).

ENGLAND FEELS TREMORS

London, June 12. The Belgian earthquake was also noticed in Western Germany and in various places tremors lasted between 30 seconds and six minutes. In Woolwich Arsenal, a workman was hurled to the ground and in many London offices clocks stopped.—(Transocean).

Londoners experienced an earthquake shock just before lunchtime today.

Although the shock was not very severe, it rocked furniture and dislodged books.

Centre of the quake is estimated to have been 200 miles away. It is reported that shocks were also felt in Central and Western Europe, while in Belgium, chimneys and tiles from the roof fell as the result of the tremor.—(Reuter Bulletin).

LIGHTNING DAMAGE

London, June 11. The first bad thunderstorm this summer struck Maidstone, Kent, last night.

Several houses were struck by lightning while telephone lines were disrupted and radios put out of action.—(Reuter).

GETTING READY

London, June 11. The Clyde Trust is already taking steps to prepare for the journey to sea of the sister ship to the Cunard-White Star liner Queen Mary by arranging for dredging a channel. The Queen Elizabeth will not be launched till September 27, and will be over another year fitting out, before taking her first trip to sea.—(British Wireless).

AROUSING CHINESE SPECULATION

Shanghai, June 12.

The Japanese flagship, Izumo, with Vice-Admiral Koshiro Okawa on board, cleared the Hongkew wharf today. It is believed that the cruiser is going up the Yangtze in connection with the projected naval drive westward.

Another report states that the Izumo is going to Formosa for overhaul, as she has been here over a year. Her departure from Shanghai has aroused some speculation in Chinese circles.

There are now five Japanese destroyers and one torpedo boat in Shanghai.—(International).

WOMAN WITNESS THREATENED

New York, June 11.

A woman described as the Government's most important witness in the sensational Nazi espionage case, has fled from her home after she had received threats of death by letter and telephone.

The woman, who is now hiding under the protection of the police, was formerly a nurse in President Roosevelt's household.—(Reuter).

WIGHTMAN CUP TENNIS

American Women Victorious

London, June 12.

The United States beat Britain by five points to two at Wimbledon for the eighth time in the Wightman Cup. On the final day yesterday Helen Wills-Moody beat Miss Kay Stammers 6-2, 3-6, 6-3. In the doubles Miss Stammers and Mrs. Bund were beaten by Miss Dearman and Ingram 2-6, 5-7. Mrs. Fabyan (U.S.) beat Miss M. Lumb 5-7, 6-2, 6-3 and Miss Marble (U.S.) beat Miss Scriven 6-3, 3-6, 6-0.—(Transocean).

EARLIER RESULTS

London, June 10.

United States gained a 2-1 lead after the first day's play in the Wightman Cup lawn tennis contest against Great Britain at Wimbledon today.

Miss Kay Stammers caused a surprise by defeating Miss Alice Marble in the opening match, but Mrs. Helen Wills Moody beat Miss Peggy Scriven in the other singles match, while Mrs. Sarah Fabyan and Miss Marble outplayed Miss Margaret Lumb and Miss Freda James in the doubles.

Rain interfered with play in the match between Miss Marble and Miss Stammers. With the score deadlocked at 3-3, rain began to fall and the seventh game concluded in a shower, going to the American girl after it had been deuced.

The full scores were 3-6, 7-5, 6-3 in favour of Miss Stammers. Mrs. Moody had the better of Miss Peggy Scriven by 6-0, 7-5. The second set was a ding-dong battle. Miss Scriven was leading 4-3 at one stage and in the twelfth game she had four game points.

In the first set, the English girl was definitely outplayed. The doubles went to United States, Mrs. Sarah Fabyan-Fabyan and Miss Marble beating Miss Margaret Lumb and Miss Freda James by 6-4, 6-2.

The American combination proved too good.—(Reuter).

ENGLAND IN STRONG POSITION IN FIRST TEST

Big Score Enables Hammond To Declare At 658 For 8

By F. Mela

ENGLAND, 658 FOR 8 DECLARED; AUSTRALIA 138 FOR 3. That sums up the position at the close of the second day's play in the First Test match between England and Australia on the famous Trent Bridge ground, Nottingham, and from the English point of view, the situation is a highly satisfactory one.

From all accounts W. R. ("Wally") Hammond has already made his mark as a Test captain. His arrangement of the batting order was such that it enabled the English batsmen to produce their best against an attack that is anything but mediocre and when Australia went in to bat he changed his bowling to judiciously that the tourists had to fight hard for every run.

Australia needs another 370 runs to save the follow-on but although the task appears to be a formidable one, it is by no means beyond the Australians and for one shall not be surprised if they can manage it. Stan McCabe is still at the wicket and there are also Badcock, Barnett, Hassett—all capable of big things.

GRAND START

When Hammond won the toss on Friday there was much jubilation amongst England's supporters but it may be safe, perhaps, to say that even the most enthusiastic of them did not expect such a fine start from Barnett and Hutton. That they were able to place England in such a strong position speaks volumes for their fine batting and also, their temperaments for big occasions.

McCORMICK FAILS

Although the groundsman reported that the wicket was about the fastest he had ever prepared, the Australian speed merchant, McCormick, failed to do anything, his one wicket (Barnett) costing him 108 runs.

On O'Reilly fell the most work. He bowled 56 overs, 11 being maidens to take three for 164, quite a good performance when it is borne in mind that the total scored off the bat came to 631 runs. The wicket, described as perfect, did not give the spin bowlers any help.

Hammond only made 26 it is true, but he batted at a time when O'Reilly and Fleetwood-Smith were bowling an immaculate length and he did well to wear down the bowling for the latter batsmen.

In this respect he was well supported by Paynter who went on to score 216 not out. Compton started his Test career with a century and when he completed this he helped to establish a new record—four individual centuries in an innings.

Leslie Ames batted well for his 46 and then, with about an hour left for play, Hammond declared. England having amassed the useful total of 658 for 8.

Paynter had, according to the cables, played glorious cricket and during his 330 minutes at the wicket hit a six, a five and 26 boundaries.

AUSTRALIA BATS

Bradman decided to start the Australian innings with Fingleton and Brown, the attack being entrusted to Kenneth Farnes and Hammond himself. In the first over the Essex bowler gave away six runs but with the total at 29 Hammond brought on Wright for Farnes, the change having the desired effect as Fingleton played on from the new bowler.

Bradman came in and Hammond again brought on Farnes, whom Bradman did not appear to like. Hammond swung changes in the bowling rapidly and England met with further success when Ames caught Brown behind the sticks off Farnes.

WORLD SOCCER

Quarter Finals In France

Paris, June 11.
Four games in the quarter-finals of the world football championship will be played tomorrow in various French towns. They are being looked-forward to with considerable interest by the sporting community, the game between France and Italy being the one topic of conversation in sporting circles.

The French team for this game will be the same as that which beat the Belgians by three goals to one last Sunday while the Italians will be fielding the same eleven that only just beat the Norwegians in the previous round. A good game should be seen at Bordeaux between the Brazilians and Czechoslovakians and it is generally felt that if it rains the odds will be in favour of the latter side.

The Cubans are expected to beat the Swedes at Antibes, on the

MORE GERMANS
LEARN TO SWIM

No fewer than 3,600 swimming pools in country districts are to be built in the next few years according to the plans of the Society for People's Baths which are meeting with the full support of the Nazi Government and Party.

In 50,000 communities in Germany only 5,500 swimming pools were recently counted. This is regarded as wholly insufficient in view of the fact that 70 per cent. of all Germans cannot swim, as it is stated.

SHARE MARKET REVIEW

Buyers Hold Back

BY C. A. L. RICKETT

Member-Secretary

Hong Kong Sharebrokers' Assn. Monday and Thursday were holidays, leaving only two clear working days in the week, during which the market has remained featureless.

Conditions in China continue to have a depressing effect, and buyers are not prepared to raise their bids. On the other hand sellers are disinclined to lower their prices and consequently very little business has been transacted and prices have been inclined to sag.

Trains had buyers at $18.85 and sellers at $18.85 at the close of business on Saturday. China Lights (o) buyers at $10 1/2, sellers at $10 1/2. Telephone (o) buyers at $27, sellers at $27 1/2. Providents (o) buyers at $6.60, sellers at $6.80. Hotels were offering at $6.60 and Lands at $36. Union Insurance shares could be obtained at $15 1/2 and Watsons at $6.10. H.K. Docks (o) had buyers at $18 1/2. Cements changed hands at $18 1/2 and later could be obtained at $18 1/2. Electrics were done at $58 1/2 and $58 and could be obtained at the last figure.

Gold Mining stocks were firmer at the close of business on Saturday, and prices of all listed stocks showed improvement. Benguet Consolidated closed at Ps. 10.10, an improvement of 70 cts. Coco Grove recovered 3 1/2 cts. to 48 1/2 cts. I.X.L. improved from 64 cts. to 70 cts. Demonstrations from 28 cts. to 32 cts. San Mauricio from 43 1/2 cts. to 48 1/2 cts. and Atoks from 24 1/2 cts. to 28 1/2 cts. Big Wedge and Atok Gold Mining Cos. have each declared a dividend of 1 centavo, payable on 30th June, 1938.

PLANE BURSTS INTO FLAMES

London, June 11.

The crew of six of an R.A.F. bomber had a remarkable escape to which the coolness and resource of the pilot contributed when yesterday afternoon, the machine burst into flames at 4,000 feet when flying over Leicester.

The starboard engine caught fire and the blazing machine was watched by thousands of people whose attention was drawn by the flames.

The crew debated whether to take to parachutes, but the pilot turned off the petrol and eventually the air rush blew out the fire. The pilot then restarted the other engine and landed at Leicester Airport. (British Wireless).

CABINET TO DEAL WITH THE BOMBING OF BRITISH STEAMERS IN SPAIN

Sir Thomas Inskip Sounds A Warning

London, June 12. It is considered possible that a Cabinet meeting will be called on Monday to deal with the problem arising out of the bombing of British ships and property in Spain, according to the diplomatic correspondent of the Observer.

The writer adds that most of the schemes hitherto considered have had to be abandoned, either because they did not promise to be effective, or raised potential international complications, or might have had the effect of even increasing the danger to British ships.

"There are further considerations which cannot be ignored by the Government," writes the correspondent. "One is that many ships entering Republican ports are chartered for the deliberate purpose of running risks for the sake of proportionately greater profits. They are not all British ships even when they are flying the British flag."—(Reuter).

"BETTER NOT TRY"
London, June 12. Sir Thomas Inskip, Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence, speaking at Hatfield yesterday said that the question of attacks on British ships in Spain was in the capable hands of the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, and the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax.

"Any fool can make trouble out of the situation," said Sir Thomas, "but it requires great qualities—of which we have not been disappointed—to preserve our rights without, I hope, any interference or any alteration in the policy we deliberately adopted of non-intervention in Spain."

"It is difficult to provoke the British nation. Anybody who is inclined to try, had better not," declared Sir Thomas Inskip.—(Reuter).

BADLY DAMAGED
Gandia, June 12. As the result of two recent Nationalist air raids on this British-owned port, the waterfront is so badly damaged that it might have been visited

CAPTAIN DEAD
Valencia, June 11. It is reported that the captain of the steamer Brisbane, attacked by insurgent seaplanes, has died from wounds, making the sixth fatality as a result of the bombing.

The British steamer Thorpe, which was also bombed by insurgent aircraft, has now sunk.

Another unnamed British ship, which was loading fruit, was bisected by a bomb at Gandia.—(Reuter).

FIVE KILLED
Madrid, June 11. The British steamer, St. Winifred, which was bombed on Monday, when five were killed, struck by a bomb at Alicante yesterday evening in the course of the day's third air raid.

Casualties in the town were over 100, including eleven dead.—(Reuter).

Explosion In City
Three are dead, including a woman, and one seriously injured as the result of an explosion in Wai Sang Lane, off Jubilee Street, near the old Central Market, about 5 a.m. yesterday.

From the Police it was learned that the explosion occurred when a jar of ammonia, which was included in the contents of a refrigerator in the Hong Kong Cold Storage Ice Plant, blew up. Cause of this has not yet been established.

Five persons were in the premises at the time of the explosion. One of these was only slightly injured but as he ran away immediately after the accident, the police have not yet been able to trace his whereabouts.

The people were trapped in the premises after the explosion and the police and Fire Brigade workers—the latter used respirators when they went into the premises—had to make a hole in the adjoining wall to reach the dead and injured.

Mr. G.S. Wilson, A.S.P., was on the scene to direct operations.

JAPANESE TO CUT REEDS

Hankow, June 12. To deprive the Chinese guerrillas of cover the Japanese military authorities have ordered all reeds growing in the surrounding districts of Tientsin to be cut, according to a message from Tientsin.

Hiding in the tall green reeds, the guerrilla snipers have frequently fired at Japanese soldiers passing by.—(Central News).

YELLOW RIVER BREAKS BANKS

The Chinese Left Wing was ordered to offer the most stubborn resistance along the dykes on the south bank of the Yellow River. As a result of heavy Japanese artillery and aerial bombardment the dykes were badly damaged.

The rushing waters through the breaks in the dykes are at present flooding the countryside and is threatening to become one of the most serious Yellow River floods hitherto known.

The communique adds that Chengchow is still in Chinese hands, while communication between Chengchow and Hankow is functioning normally once again.—(Reuter).

WIDE AREA INUNDED
Chengchow, June 12. The destruction of a section of the dykes on the south bank of the Yellow River by Japanese artillery and aerial bombardment on June 9 has caused a widening of the flooded areas.

The flood waters are pouring out through the breach between Chungmow and Paila in a southeasterly direction, into the Chia Lu River, which is a tributary of the Hwai River in north Anhwei.

Fields and houses on both sides of the Lunghai Railway are inundated. Refugees, who have no means to flee, are perching on the tops of trees or the roofs of houses, where they are exposed to fire from the opposing forces.—(Central News).

JAPANESE SURRENDER TOWNS

SHUCHENG FALLS
Luan, Anhwei, June 12. The Japanese took Shucheng, about 60 kilometres southwest of Hotel, yesterday.

After a respite of some days, 3,000 Japanese from Hotel launched an attack on the city in three columns. After resisting stubbornly, the Chinese withdrew from the city and took up new positions at Chihliho, south of the city.—(Central News).

HEAVY FIGHTING
Hankow, June 12. Heavy fighting is progressing to the west of Hotel, where the Japanese forces are advancing westward in three columns, according to Chinese reports yesterday.

One Japanese column is said to have reached Taohsicheng, to the north of Shucheng. The Japanese attack is reported to be most severe, the two wings attempting to encircle the Chinese troops.

The Japanese are stated to be trying out the highway between Shucheng and Luan.

A Chinese military communique claims that the Chinese forces are holding positions to the south of Shucheng.—(Reuter).

PRESSURE RELEASED
Hankow, June 12. Frustrated in the drive from Paila to Chengchow on the Lunghai Railway, Japanese troops today relaxed pressure in this direction and concentrated their advance southward from Chungmow and Weichuen to Hsuehank, an important town on the Peiping-Hankow Railway.

Heavy concentration of Chinese troops is made at a point north-east of Hsuehank in anticipation of this attack.

Other Japanese units, at Menghsien, Tungkuwan and Hancheng in north Honan, are moving down in order to attack the Peiping-Hankow Railway from the west with Ho Shang Chia, or Monk Bridge, on the same line as the objective.

Yuhshien and Chiehshien, west of the railway, are also Japanese objectives, from which the invaders may proceed by highway to attack Loyang in the north-west.—(Inter-rail).
